SNSC Medical Plan:

Smuggler's Notch Ski Patrol are first response trained.

The Ski Patrol building at the top of Sterling Lift is manned at all times with at least two patrollers and will respond to any need on the race venue.

Sterling Patrol response time to the race venue is 5 minutes max.

If patrol is needed, the chief of race will contact patrol via radio or cell phone, at this point the race will be placed on hold and will remain on hold until patrol has cleared the venue.

Minor injuries requiring first aid only will be handled by Smugglers' Notch Ski Patrol in the first aid station in the Madonna Base Lodge.

If an ambulance service is needed Patrol will contact Cambridge Rescue. Response time is 12 Minutes.

Transport Time to the University of Vermont Medical Center (Fletcher Allen) in Burlington is 45 minutes to 60 minutes. Transport time to Copley Hospital in Morrisville is 40 minutes to 45 minutes.

If Cambridge Rescue determines that air transportation is required Dartmouth Flight For Life will be utilized. Flight time to landing are is twenty to thirty minutes in good weather.

Flight time to University of Vermont Medical Center (Fletcher Allen) in Burlington is 10 Minutes to 15 Minutes.

Flight Time to Dartmouth-Hitchcock is Twenty minutes to Thirty minutes.
