Thank you for your continued support of the Vermont Alpine Racing Association. Your membership is instrumental in allowing VARA to support our athletes, programs and ski racing in VT. VARA's programming such as developmental and educational projects or support through financial assistance is linked to your involvement and participation with VARA and our projects. Our goals are core to our yearly activities in and around athlete support, building community, competition and in promoting a healthy lifestyle for our membership.

Thank you again for being part of an organization that takes great pride in its members. I look forward to 2019 and to the growth of our programs, the development of our athletes and to a successful season for all.

Julie

VARA's Goals

Lifestyle

To recognize skiing as a life-long sport and to promote ski racing as a healthy, fun and constructive lifestyle.

Competition

To create and maintain a clear path that assists VARA athletes in reaching their highest level of age-based competition.

Community

To promote a strong alpine racing community through communication, education, and innovation.

Scholarship

To provide scholarship opportunities for VARA athletes through fundraising and promotional events.
